BIG PARADE AT WESTERLY

Total of 1064 to Saturday's Liberty Loan—Seaman Manson Injured—Patriotic Rally—State's Contingent Leaves For Camp—Fire at Kingston Fairgrounds.

"This is a big day for Westerly, when people of the allied nations combine here in a big patriotic demonstration, and realize that in fighting for their liberty bonds and will surely go 'over the top.' Thus spoke Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, pastor of the First Baptist church, in an intensely patriotic address delivered from an automobile on Dixon square, just before the dismissal of the Liberty loan parade, Saturday afternoon, when the 1064 paraders and several thousand spectators formed en masse in the square and vicinity.

It sure was a big day for Westerly and the procession was a credit to the town and all who participated. In comparison it was larger than the big procession in New York city the day before with 30,000 paraders. The procession was headed by Colonel E. W. Whipple as marshal, Captain Archie C. Thompson, Captain Walter D. Slyn and Thomas McKenzia as aides. Then came the Liberty loan committee members of the Westerly town council, selectmen of the town of Stonington and members of the general assembly.

They were followed by the Westerly band with a service flag of seven stars denoting that the number had responded to the call to colors from the band. Immediately after the band came Company C. Pawcatuck, Connecticut Home Guard, the Westerly Constabulary, the Westerly Sanitary corps with float demonstrating the work, and the Westerly Boy Scouts.

There came a long line of automobiles bearing members of the Grand Army of the Republic, wives and widows of civil war veterans, the mothers or sisters of boys now in the military service, each carrying a service flag. Then in order, the Pawcatuck Women's Temperance union, an automobile with a float carrying a representation of the allied school girls bearing large flags and larger girls with pompons, Red Cross section in all its departments, Central Fire and Hose company, the Imperial band of Stonington, leading the P. Barker Hose company, a float carrying a service flag, the Westerly fire department led the bearers of the flags of each of the three companies.

Lodge, Lodge No. 249, Sons of Italy, with American and Italian flags.

East Greenwich Boys' band, heading the Italian Youth club, with Ira Allison Switzer as banner bearer, Pride of New England Lodge, L. O. F., Vindicator Lodge, No. 100, Junior Order of American Mechanics, Westerly Lodge, No. 678, Renovation and Protective Order of Elks, had the most of honor on the left of the long line. They were headed by a naval officer with ten enlisted naval men in uniform, all Elks and carrying a large American flag. The Elks in the line carried a small flag, and this last organization in line compared well with all that went before.

By actual count there were 1064 in the line and the procession was one of the largest and best ever in Westerly.

Victory Rifles, London, who was wounded while in active service on the western front. The speakers were escorted from the Colonial club to the opera house by the local committee and the Westerly band.

Rhode Island's second and largest increment so far in the second national army, went to Camp Dix, Sunday, stopping at Westerly, where the men from State Division, No. 1, en-trained. The special train was made up of fourteen cars and followed the Colonial Express. Those who went from Division No. 1 are: Allen H. Sylvester, Westerly; Eusebio Chauvin, New London; Max Sala, Gales Ferry; George A. Bergstrom, Jesse A. Whaley and Owen J. Regan, all of East Greenwich; Philip B. DeMaudel, Providence; Raymond Crompton and Antonio Bianchi of East Greenwich; James Miller, Potter Hill; Walter S. Havens, Westerly; Bernard Franzese and Giuseppe D'Ambrascio of East Greenwich; John Scullia, New York city; Edwin J. Sals, Westerly; Frank Ashton, Providence; Joseph Gosselin, White Rock; L. R. C. Hinton, Providence; James W. Brett, E. Whipple, Westerly; Archie Burdick, Alton; Joseph Maured, of Bradford; Rosario Lombardo, Hartford, Conn.; Nicolò Lombardo, Westerly; Harold G. Clark, Peace Dale; Nech Torti, Providence; Michael J. Crowley, Hope Valley; Edward Andrews, Jr., Westerly; William Blakeley, East Greenwich; Thomas J. Briody, Westerly; Vittorio Paris, Mattapan, Mass.; Frank J. Monahan, Larchmont, N. Y.; Rosalino Monella, Westerly; Francis Charbonneau, Philadelphia, Pa.; Edmund C. Stedman, Flushing, N. Y.; Joseph Perando, of Westerly; Thomas Stringfellow, Wickford.

Fire at the grounds of the Washington County Agricultural Society at the fair grounds in West Kingston, on Saturday, destroyed the secretary's building, a room and sheds near the main entrance to the grounds. Three other buildings were damaged and the stables, grandstand and other buildings endangered. It is said that sparks from a passing locomotive set fire to the thick grass leaves and light brush between the railroad and the grounds. The burning embers carried by the wind set fire to the roofs of the poultry building, the main exhibition building and the north end of the grandstand, but these were saved but not until after hours were burned through by volunteers forming bucket brigades.

The Wakefield, Peace Dale and Narragansett fire companies responded to call and with perhaps three hundred men from nearby sections, succeeded in preventing more serious damage.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers do not know. Last of all, taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Four-Piece Colonial Bedroom Suite $97

Has the Massive Beauty Characteristic of Early Colonial Furniture

Your Choice of Either Mahogany or American Walnut

The beauty of this suite is heightened by the fact that it comes in either of these two popular woods. The cabinet work throughout is evidence of the high character of workmanship entering into its construction. All four pieces are exactly as illustrated with large French plate mirrors.

One of the distinguishing features of the furniture of Colonial days is its massive appearance and the scroll effect found in the feet and posts of all pieces. Note how artistically this design is worked out in the lines of this suite. Its rare beauty will appeal to all lovers of this genuinely American Period.
